General Festival Rules, Regulations and Specifications for Vendors

1. Applications will be accepted after April 1, 2017.
2. Payment must be included with application to reserve booth space(s). Booths will not be reserved without payment in full.
3. Vendor space is assigned on a first come, first serve basis. Downtown Poplar Bluff, Inc. (DPB) will make every effort to assign vendors to their preferred location; however, we reserve the right to place vendors where space is available.
4. Returning vendors have until June 16, 2017, to reserve their booths from the previous year or they will be released.
5. New vendors must submit photos of their booth/vendor trailer with their application.
6. All booth spaces are 10'x 20'. This space includes trailer tongues, axles, anchors and legs of canopies. If your measurement exceeds 10'x 20', please reserve an additional booth space. Vendors may NOT secure canopies by drilling or hammering into the street or sidewalk. Please be prepared to anchor your canopy. The sidewalks may not be used for storage or blocked in any way.
7. Tent, tables and direct water hookups are not provided.
8. All vendors must include a list of items to be sold with this application.
9. All applicants who were not vendors for the 2016 Iron Horse Festival must include photos of your booth and items available for sale (providing a website is permitted). Applications without this will not be considered.
10. The Festival is an outdoor event on streets which may be sloped or uneven. The event will proceed, rain or shine. Vendors are responsible for their own booth's rain protection and are expected to secure their own booth(s). If weather becomes too severe, DPB will make the final determination. NO REFUNDS will be given for any reason.
11. DPB reserves the final and absolute right to interpret rules and regulations and to settle and determine all matters, questions or differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with, or incidental to the Iron Horse Festival.
12. Vendors are responsible for collecting & reporting sales tax on all transactions.

Banned Items

1. Dangerous, offensive or obscene materials including literature, t-shirts, shirts, hats, caps and flags or the like. "Obscene" is defined as vulgar or sexually explicit language including curse words, nudity, partial nudity, or the like.
2. Yard Sale/Flea Market items.
3. Snap pops or any other item containing explosive materials.
4. Knives, air guns, BB guns, pellet guns, etc.
5. Downtown Poplar Bluff, Inc. (DPB) reserves the right to inspect your booth space for banned items. If present, DPB will ask you to remove banned items. If you choose not to comply, your booth will be closed and you will be escorted from the festival immediately.

Contract

Downtown Poplar Bluff, Inc. (DPB) reserves the right to terminate the vendor contract at any time and reserves the right to cancel any vendor during the event for non-compliance of festival rules. By submitting this signed form, the vendor waives DPB, and the City of Poplar Bluff, its officers, their agents, their assigns, their board and council members, their employees and festival volunteers, sponsors and fellow participants from any liability due to personal injury, all risk of property (lost, stolen or damaged), as well as any bodily injury or death that might occur in connection to the event. DPB will not be responsible for accidents, damages or theft during the festival. Vendor must comply with any and all statutes and ordinances of the State, County, City and other governing authorities' rules and regulations which might apply, including but not limited to, rules and regulations affecting gambling, health & sanitation, building & electrical construction & maintenance, and fire safety. Any violation of these rules, regulations, statutes and/or ordinances shall result in immediate forfeiture of all rights of participation in the festival. Vendors may not sell raffle tickets or circulate petitions for signature without prior approval. No refunds will be given for inclement weather.
